A screenshot of a web-based calculator interface. At the top, it says "Your Monthly Income : ?". Below that is a table with two columns: "LAYER" and "CUSTOMERS". The table shows a progression of numbers: Layer 1 has 1 customer, Layer 2 has 2, Layer 3 has 3, Layer 4 has 4, and Layer 5 has 5. Below the table, it says "PLEASE ENTER 2 FIELDS BELOW & PRESS BUTTON:". There are two input fields: "Enter # of People You May Directly Refer" and "Enter # of People They May Each Refer". To the right of the second field is a blue button with an equals sign.

You always start out domain registrations with the 7 day Free Trial, and at the end of the free trial period you're billed $10 monthly.

That charge covers URL forwarding, a website builder and web hosting, and 10 email accounts.

Compensation Plan – Because this is a 5 Level Plan, you are able to build as wide as you can imagine. For every domain that becomes registered in your team you receive payment of $1 per month.

So the example we generally use is based on 5 customers being referred by you. Basically that means you make $5 a month when you refer 5, if they do the same thing that's $25 to you, and if everyone continues this way through 5 levels that gives you $3,125 each month.

Also, if you are able to match a rather strict criteria, and maintain it every month, there's also an infinity bonus which is paid out on unlimited levels.

Bonuses – There's also a 7 day contest period offered. If you are able to refer 5 paid affiliates, your bonus would be $100. For example, because this is unlimited – if you were able to refer 25 new paid in affiliates in 7 days, you'd be looking a $500, and so on.

For someone who is really charged up, and refers a total of 1,000 paid affiliates in a consecutive 4 week period, you would received the Heavy Hitter Bonus.

That bonus happens to be $5,000.
